Merchants Adopt Appreciation Day Plan

Grayling merchants are evidently alive to the benefits that will accrue to them through the "Appreciation Day" plan that will soon get under way in Grayling. This plan being announced in last week's issue will be put into effect in Grayling very soon as most of the merchants have already signed up to come under the plan.

This plan has for its object a means to increase business in Grayling, increase cash sales over credit sales, get old accounts on the merchants' books paid up and increase the trade area from which Grayling draws her trade. It has worked very successfully in hundreds of other communities and Grayling is fortunate to secure the rights for this plan from the National Trade's Day Association who protects Grayling under their copyright against competition from other nearby communities.

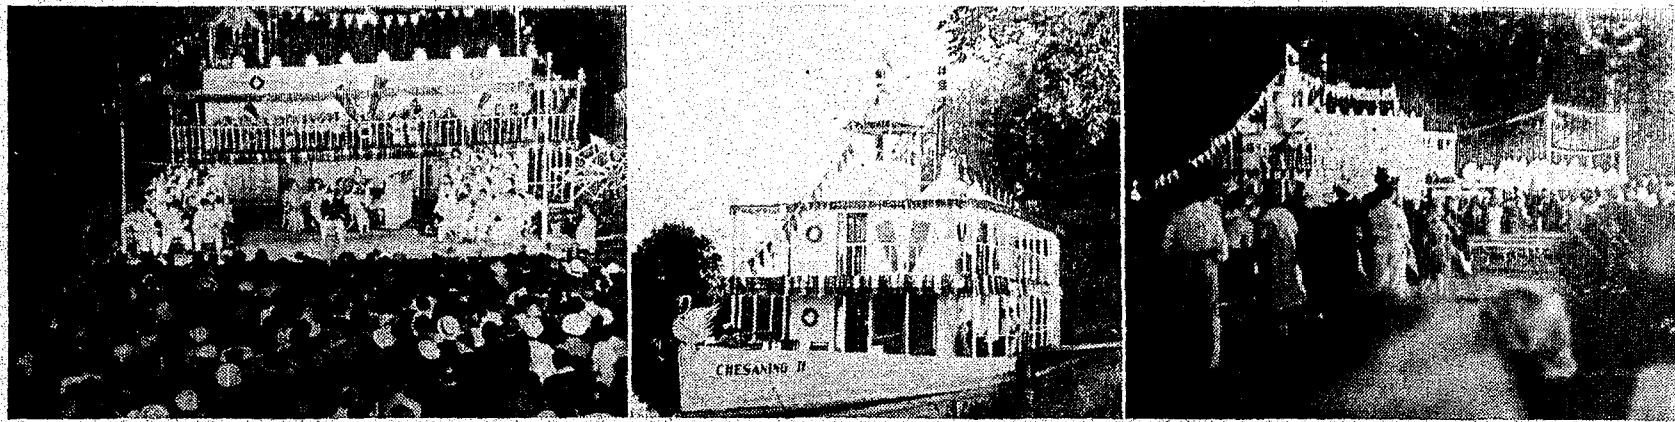

The Grayling Chamber of Commerce who are sponsoring this plan, requests all merchants to get in on this plan at the start, otherwise those failing to do so will be conducting their business under a handicap in comparison to those merchants working under the plan. This plan is open to all Grayling merchants whether you are a Chamber of Commerce member or not and the plan will be in operation for 13 weeks at which time it will no doubt be extended. Don't overlook this good bet.

R. A. Wright, Pres., Chamber of Commerce.

1938 Chesaning Showboat Created a Beautiful Picture to Thousands of People

Three scenes that were "shot" from the 1938 Chesaning Showboat—a still of the boat as it rested "at anchor" before the cast boarded the craft Friday night. A scene looking across the audience and picking up the show on the stage and the beautiful boat in the background and the third picture a cross section of the crowd with the stage and the boat in the background.

Guide School To Begin Next Week

The Guide School, sponsored by the Grayling Chamber of Commerce, as was announced in last week's issue, will get under way on August 1st. This is a W.P.A. project and will be supervised by Mr. Dexter McSwain.

Mr. McSwain appeared before a meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors last week and explained in detail what the school teaches and what its accomplishments will be, and everyone hearing the outline was very much impressed.

To date many applications have been made by those wishing to take this course and it is apparent that the first school will be filled to capacity. The school will extend over a period of four months and those eligible for attendance will be paid $40.00 per month while taking the course. Mr. H. Gillespie of Detroit will assist Mr. McSwain at the local school.

To begin with the classes will be instructed in rustic furniture making. Operations will be conducted at Grayling Tourist park, where the manufactured articles will be put into use.

Other operations which the classes will be taught are trout fly tying, fishing rod making and repairing, boat and canoe building. Classes for this work will be held in the front building at the Winter Sports park.

According to Mr. Gillespie other classes will be held in "How to live off the land," Red Cross service and first aid service, and how to do bone setting, life saving, etc.

There will be four instructors and classes will begin at 8:00 a. m. and continue to 5:00 p. m., with an hour out for noon. A total of 120 hours will be given to classes each month.

CAMP HIGGINS LAKE TO DEDICATE NEW EDUCATIONAL BUILDING

In line with the aims of the Director of C.C.C. for a single building in each camp for educational purposes, Camp Higgins Lake, Company 672, CCC, will dedicate their new educational building, Wednesday, August 3.

The building, 120 ft. long, constructed from salvaged lumber from an abandoned CCC camp, will provide space for all educational activities in camp. The library and reading room which is 40 feet long, has built-in bookshelves between each window. The building provides offices for Educational personnel, three large classrooms, one to be used exclusively for typewriting, the other two for the many academic, vocational, informal and job training subjects offered in camp and a large woodworking shop with the latest electric driven woodworking equipment, including combination bench saw and jointer, press drill, lathes and scroll saw.

Open house will be the order of the day. The afternoon to be given to visitors inspection of the camp and work projects. Supper at 5:00 P. M. Retreat at 6:00 P. M. The evening program will start at 7:30 sharp. The musical portion of the program will be furnished by the Grayling Drum and Bugle Corps. The main speaker of the evening will be Mr. George Fern, Director of Vocational Education, State Department of Public Instruction. It is expected that 6th Corps Area and other CCC officials will be present.

Supervision of the building has been handled by Captain John D. Austin, Commanding Officer, and Mr. Andrew Braidwood, Project Superintendent. Mr. Wayne A. Rosenbaum, Educational Adviser.

Reservations Coming For Canoe Carnival

The committees working on the Annual Canoe Carnival report good progress in their plans for the coming event which will be held on August 13th and 14th. Mr. Harley Russell, chairman of the Boxing Tournament committee, advises that twelve boxing bouts have been arranged and these bouts will be inter-city in character as contestants from Cheboygan, Rose City, Boyne City will be matched with Grayling boys and CCC contestants. The bouts will run under the sanction of the Michigan A.A.U. Each of the twelve bouts will be sponsored by Grayling Merchants who will give prizes to the winners of each bout.

The water contests and sports program being handled by a committee with Jack Redhead as Chairman, will prove more interesting than ever as many new features are to be added. These contests will get under way on Saturday afternoon, August 13th at the City Park and prizes will be given the winners of each event. The fly casting contests for both accuracy and distance will attract many expert fly casters.

The canoe trip down the main stream of the AuSable will get under way at 9 a. m. on Sunday, August 14th. The committee in charge having Ernie Borchers as chairman, reports that all canoes will be guided by competent guides and this year in order to have as many canoes entered as possible, the owners will be paid $6.50 for each canoe or river boat that he enters and furnishes a guide for the trip. Canoe and boat owners are requested to call Mr. Borchers at once and register your canoe or boat with him. All canoes and river boats are to be ready at the bridge by 8 o'clock that morning.

Each person entering a canoe should bring along cushions and back rests that the patrons may be made comfortable.

The trip will have a stop-over at noon for a picnic lunch at the Burton Place. Reservations for the canoe trip and boxing tournament are now coming in, and if the weather favors us, Grayling should see the biggest canoe carnival that has ever been held.

The Michigan Mirror

Non-partisan News Letter
Michigan Press Association
By GENE ALLEMAN

Lansing—The most interesting, educational 200 acres in Michigan are at Dearborn.

Reflecting the ideas of Henry Ford, are two institutions at this Detroit suburb. One is known as the Edison Institute Museum, a collection of Americana devoted to agriculture, manufacture and transportation. The other is Greenfield Village, a living community dedicated to our American pioneers.

For a small admission charge of 25 cents for adults, children being admitted free at all times, you can visit both of these unique institutions. A tour is a walking lesson in American history.

Come early, for there is much to see.

Log Plows

Farmers and their families will appreciate modern conveniences of electricity and machinery a little more after they have viewed the early farm implements on display at the Edison Institute Museum.

Here is a rude wooden plow with a rough-hewn log as its beam, plows with mouldboards sheathed in saw blades, scythes from the first rough metal blades affixed to a tree branch to the cradle scythes. You will see specimens of Ambler's mowing machines, patented in 1834, and a reaper built in Brockport, New York, in 1848.

Here is the Mills engine of 1877, 50 years ahead of its time in the use of superheated steam and forced draught, and the Westinghouse vertical agricultural engine used by Henry Ford in the threshing season of 1882. Whereas electricity now does many of the chores at the farmhouse, our pioneer ancestors devised various tread-mills, horse-operated and even the dog-powered types, to relieve the farmer's wife of the drudgery of operating plunger churns.

Industrial Changes

How machinery has eased the burdens and shortened the hours for the American worker is graphically shown in the manufacture section at the Edison Institute Museum.

Here is the earliest engine, known as a Newcomen atmospheric pressure engine, a reciprocating engine of the walking beam type, developing 11 horsepower and used to pump water out of an English coal mine.

Engine improvements perfected by Watt are also displayed.

And as you might well expect, there is a fascinating collection of lamps, all the way from Eskimo lamps, candle lamps, and Edison's incandescent lamps. The evolution of the vacuum cleaner is portrayed along with stoves, refrigerators, typewriters, cameras, and even printing presses.

These collections alone will make an optimist out of the most chronic "the-world-is-getting-worse" kicker.

They are rose-colored glasses.

Michigan History

Much of the recent history of Michigan is reflected in the transportation section of the Edison Institute Museum.

As the progress of Michigan has been due largely to development of the automobile, hence the motor vehicle exhibit attracts widespread interest among all visitors.

Early American makes include the Winton, Haynes, Cadillac and Reo, various "electrics" and steamers of Stanley, White and others.

The story of the Ford automobile is told from the first car completed in 1896 through subsequent developments to the historic Model T, represented by the 15,000,000th car, and the Model A, represented by the 20,000,000th car.

You will see the car that won the first automobile race in this country—Riker's "Bullet", a streamlined, skeleton affair of ancient vintage which was powered by storage batteries and overcame all comers, steamers, electric and gasoline-powered cars, to capture the title.

McGuffey

As pioneer life in America is often associated with William Holmes McGuffey, whose readers blazed the trail to graded instruction in the Middle West, it is only logical that Greenfield Village should start its daily living with a log school made of logs brought from the Holmes farm in Pennsylvania where Dr. McGuffey was born.

Classes in the first and second grade are held here during each regular school year. After reaching third grade, the village school pupil moves to the Scotch Settlement school or to the Town Hall school. Hot lunches are served each noon at the Clinton Inn, a typical hostelry of 100 years ago which stood in Clinton, Michigan, on the great Sauk Indian trail. Early stage coaches leaving Detroit for Chicago made the Clinton Inn their first overnight stop.

Church services are held each Sunday in the Chapel of Martha Mary, named for mothers of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford. In the tower a sweet-toned bell, cast by Paul Revere, Jr., announces the morning services each morning for the village school children.

Other buildings in the Village are the Logan County Courthouse, a general store from Waterford, Michigan, Deluge fire engine house, Loranger gristmill,

Seriously Injured In Auto Accident

Ivan McEvers and Ervin Brown are patients at Mercy Hospital following an auto accident that occurred at about midnight Wednesday night. The boys were returning from Houghton Lake, having attended the carnival there, and the accident occurred on a curve between Houghton Lake and Roscommon, when the car driven by McEvers left the highway and rolled over several times.

Brown was the most seriously injured having suffered a broken pelvic bone and he will be laid up for some time. McEvers received a broken right clavicle and injuries to his arm and leg, however he is able to be up and around and will probably leave the hospital Saturday. The automobile which belonged to Ivan's brother, Calvin, was badly damaged.

Grayling 4, East Jordan 3

Grayling Merchants and East Jordan tangled in a baseball game Sunday at East Jordan, the Merchants winning by a score of 4 to 3. Winterlee pitching for Grayling allowed eight hits while his teammates bunched hits in the 8th to give them a 1-run lead. Summerville, pitching for East Jordan, allowed but 6 hits his team mates were able to garner but three runs. He struck out five men.

Score by innings:
E. Jordan 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 0

Pink and Blue Shower At 'The Wolffs' Den'

Mrs. Herbert W. Wolff, Mrs. Herbert S. Wolff and Mrs. Halford H. Kittleman were hostesses at "The Wolffs' Den" at a very delightful tea and shower in honor of Mrs. Henry Wilcox of Saginaw, Saturday afternoon.

Following the opening of the dainty packages, which were brought in an old Dutch cradle, the guests were served tea in the dining room, which was a beautiful picture, with its arrangement of blue and pink bachelor-buttons, and masses of baby's breath. The long table was centered with a large bouquet of blossoms in a white flower bowl and was guarded by four white tapers in white candlesticks tied with pink tulle. Near one end of the table was one of those ancient old birds carrying his blessed bundle in his long bill and directly under the little parcel was a little white musical cradle, filled with flowers from which came the strains of "Rock a By Baby on the Tree Top."

Mrs. Richard Snyder of Saginaw and Mrs. Esbern Hanson Jr. of Mt. Pleasant poured.

Some thirty guests called during the afternoon and everyone felt that this was one of the loveliest of the season's affairs.

sawmill, sorgum and cider mill, blacksmith shop, Currier shoe shop, tintype studio, post office, depot, Stephen Foster house, Edison homestead, Cape Cod windmill, Edison's Menlo Park laboratory, and even the steamer "Suwanee" on the Suwanee river. Greenfield Village will interest young and old.
It is a story of America.

THE JACK KELLY STOCK COMPANY COMING NEXT WEEK

The Jack Kelly Stock Company will open a three day engagement in Grayling in their new beautiful tent theatre on Monday, Aug. 1st.

The company this year numbers twenty-five people, all new with the exception of that clever little comedian known to his many friends as "Toby" Cornish. All new plays will be presented using all special scenery, electrical and stage effects to make each an outstanding production. For the opening night Mr. Kelly has selected "Tamed and How," a comedy riot that is for laughing purposes mostly. On this occasion one lady will be admitted free with each paid adult ticket.

Among other plays to be produced will be a superb feature production of "Smilin' Thru," that calls for all special scenery and wardrobe to give it a proper presentation. A beautiful story well told and once seen will never be forgotten, presented in its entirety by a most capable cast of players.

For a matinee on Wednesday afternoon Mr. Kelly is endeavoring to outdo himself in bringing to your city one of the latest and most pretentious plays ever produced in a tent theatre, one that will please the grown-ups as well as the children, entitled "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Special scenery, music and stage effects are absolutely necessary to present this dramatization of that beautiful fairy tale.

A complete change of plays and vaudeville will be given nightly. The prices will be ten and thirty-five cents and the doors open each evening at 7:30.

Seemingly every festival has a queen and sometimes a king and we can imagine Editor Webb Mc-
Call of the Mt. Pleasant Times saying "To tell with queens, we don't need a queen for our oil festival." Wouldn't it look funny to see an oil queen carrying a barrel of oil or gasoline or tank

MAY SOLVE MYSTERY

Dr. Haywood J. Pearce Jr., professor of American history at Emory university in Atlanta, with the "Virginia Dare" stone. It is a black rock bearing chiseled letters on both sides, which promise to furnish a new chapter in American history. The rock was brought to Emory university last November by a man who said he found it on the east bank of the Chowan river in North Carolina. On one side is a crude Latin cross and beneath it the lines: "Any Englishman shew John White Govr Via." On the side shown above is a message in old English lettering, signed "E. W. D.", believed to be the initials of Eleanor White Dare, mother of Virginia Dare, presumably addressed to Eleanor's father, Gov. John White. It stated that the Roanoke colonists were besieged with misery and worry after White left, and that half of them died within two years. Later, according to the inscription, savages killed all but seven of the colonists, including Ananias and Virginia Dare. Eleanor closes the message by offering a reward to anyone who would show this stone to her father.

Henry Clay Was Known as the "Great Pacificator"

With Webster and Calhoun, Henry Clay formed the great triumvirate of what has been called the golden age of American oratory. His gift for public speaking and debate, combined with his personal magnetism, helped to make him more popular with the people as a whole than any of his contemporaries during his lifetime.

Though born in Virginia, on April 12, 1777, Clay moved to Kentucky when he was twenty-one, and his point of view during his political career was that of the West. An active supporter of protection of home manufactures, writes Leslie Hartley in the Washington Star, his name is inseparably linked with what he made known as the "American system."

Clay entered public life early, was secretary of state under Adams and served for many years in congress. His long service as speaker of the house is a conspicuous part in his career; he was the first to develop the possibilities of that position.

On the question of slavery Clay took the middle ground, pleasing neither side. While he regarded slavery as grievously wrong in principle, he disliked and distrusted the abolitionists and their propaganda. His position between the two extremes, however, enabled him to play a part as mediator and he became known as the "great pacificator."

Though he sought the presidency of his country many times, Clay is remembered not so much for his long and unsuccessful struggle as for his important services in congress. When he died in 1852 his body lay in state in the rotunda of the Capitol building.

Word Eisteddfod Means

"Sitting" or "Session"

The eisteddfod, an annual Welsh national festival, is accompanied by competitions in the musical arts most associated with the history of the Welsh people.

The Welsh word means literally "sitting" or "session," notes a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. It was applied of old to Welsh assemblies of bards, whose meetings traditionally go back to the Fifth and Sixth centuries. The eisteddfods of definite record, however, begin much later than that. The earliest actual account of one of these festivals is of the one held in 1170 by Lord Rhys at his castle in Aberfeld.

In that century the eisteddfod appears also to have been a regularly constituted court of a sort, its function being to license bards and regulate their privileges. In the time of the Tudors it was still recognized as a tribunal of authority and Queen Elizabeth issued a commission for holding one in 1558.

During the next century the custom seems to have lapsed entirely, but it was revived in the Nineteenth century, and restored to its importance in Welsh life. The eisteddfod is held every year, in North and South Wales alternately.

Music competitions of a similar nature as the eisteddfod and under the same name are also held chiefly among people of Welsh origin or descent, in the United States and some of the British dominions.

Dog-Owned Island

Juan de Nova is in the Mozambique channel, nearly a hundred miles from the coast. Four hundred years ago it was an isle of birds at which Portuguese ships called for water, turtles and fruit. Many a brave ship was wrecked on its lonely shores, and marooned cats and rats found a happy hunting-ground. Then the dogs came, in the same way, and from that time Juan de Nova has been a kingdom of dogs, says London Tit-Bits Magazine. Large and dangerous packs of them roam the island, hunt in the thick bush, and prey along the beaches. Well-nigh every known breed is represented. It is stated that the different packs claim their own territory, and was betide a dog which dares to pass the unseen borders. The dogs, whose tails droop like those of wolves, resent the presence of men; and often a ship's watering company will be attacked.

Origin of the National Grange

On January 13, 1880, Oliver H. Kelley started on a trip through the South during which he conceived the idea of a fraternity of farmers to restore agriculture and unite North and South. The first meeting of the founders was held on November 15, 1887, for the purpose of organizing an order of agriculture in the United States. On December 4, 1887, a formal session was held at Washington and the National Grange was organized and officers elected.

Profitable World War Deal

A most profitable transaction in the World war was the purchase of a German register by the British Secret service in Belgium in 1917. It contained far more information about the German military forces than had been secured in the previous three years from an army of spies. The seller, says Collier's Weekly, accepted $500 for it when he could have successfully demanded several hundred times as much money.

BREAKS RECORD

Frank (Pinky) Higgins, third baseman of the Boston Red Sox, banga a single over second base in a game with the Detroit Tigers to break the consecutive hit record of 11 made by Tris Speaker in 1920. The hit was Pinky's twelfth consecutive blow.

Ford Opens 'Village' Factory at Milan

Overlooking a shimmering lake formed by damming the waters of the Saline river, this new Ford "village" factory at Milan, Mich., has just begun production, with a staff of 30 workers, all from Milan and vicinity. The plant will manufacture engine ignition coils and process soy beans. The former Milan garage property has been rebuilt into a modern little factory and equipment for manufacturing ignition coils moved in from Highland Park. A small hydroelectric and steam plant is being built to supply power. The grist mill, a landmark in Milan for several generations, is now in process of reconstruction. A small hydroelectric turbine is to be installed. A new building is being built nearby where soy beans will be processed. The water power plant will be supplied with power from a new dam, built when the street in front of the plant was straightened and the river bridge relocated. As soon as the buildings are completed deep lawns are to be laid and the property landscaped. It already has a fine stand of old trees, around the buildings.

Carl Parsons is having a new roof put on his house.

All summer merchandise greatly reduced at the Maureen Shoppe.

The Unemployment Compensation office will be open for applications every Monday at the Court house.

The City Council has purchased 500 feet of new hose, adding to their already complete fire fighting equipment.

Mrs. Russell Robertson of Hunts Creek underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital Saturday morning and is reported as recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cliff spent the week end in Detroit, attending the Fall and Winter Style Show at the Statler Hotel, purchasing for the Maureen Shoppe.

Mrs. Joseph Forunier is very ill at her home. Her daughter Mrs. Cecil Boice of Winnipeg, Ont., who is here for her annual summer visit, is caring for her mother.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid society of Michelson Memorial church will meet with Mrs. Olaf Michelson at her cottage at Lake Margrethe Friday, August 5.

A number of ladies, friends of Mrs. Christ Johnson, dropped in Tuesday afternoon to remind her of her birthday anniversary on that day. The afternoon was spent visiting after which the hostess served a delicious lunch to the guests.

Mrs. Herbert Stephan entertained a company of ladies Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Earlyn Connin of Adrian who was visiting here. Games were enjoyed and the hostess served a delicious lunch. The guest of honor was showered with many gifts.

Francis Nephew of Lovells was laid up for a week, caused by a runaway team. Mr. Nephew was raking hay when the team ran away. He was caught under the rake and dragged through the field until he was unconscious. His face, arms and back were badly lacerated.

Ray Czachorski, proprietor of Ray's Pharmacy in Flint, is having a fine new cottage built at Lake Margrethe in the vicinity of Camp Margrethe. The building is 27x48 feet and built with log siding. The interior is to be finished in knotty cedar. Albert W. King of Flint is erecting the building.

Mrs. Nyland Houghton returned from Ohio Monday afternoon with the good news that her father Frank Ahman, who took seriously ill in a town near Akron, Ohio, is improving and was moved by train to the home of his brother Axel Ahman, in Staten, N. Y. Mr. Ahman was so ill that a blood transfusion was necessary.

According to Muri H. DeFoe of the Charlotte Republican (of Eaton county), "The antis served notice on the county postmasters that the new civil service law, which gives them a life tenure, if they can get it, sets up that postmasters must refrain from dabbling in politics or take a chance on dismissal. This is rather a tough blow on the politico-postmasters but there is nothing to do about it."

Unfortunately the names of three little girls were left out of the article reporting Kiddie Kapers, the presentation of Robinson Dance Studio, Traverse City, in last week's issue. The young ladies are Wanda Ruth Doroh, Roberta Redhead and Emily Giegling, and the little misses had very prominent parts in the entertainment and helped in a big way to make the show a success. Also the names of Betty Hewitt was misspelled.

Closing the Calvary bible school which was held for two weeks of school days under the direction of Mr. Floyd D. Barnes, a program was held at the Barnes home Friday evening. Certificates were awarded for perfect attendance to several children, and the following day—Saturday, the some 25 boys and girls were taken to Otsego State park for a picnic, and an enjoyable day was spent. Assisting Mr. Barnes with the school were Mrs. Barnes and Miss Peacock.

A good sized crowd enjoyed the "free show" at the City Tourist park Thursday evening. It was presented by Standard Oil Company agents and dealers of Crawford county and a Walt Disney comedy, always a favorite, was enjoyed by the crowd. Previous however to presenting the film some local boys and girls had an opportunity of singing before the "mike" and the lucky ones were Jean Crawford, Dick and Dwight Reava, Dale Burns and Mary Fletcher. The entire performance took a couple of hours.

Mrs. Andrew Peterson is entertaining the Danish Ladies Aid society today at her home.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid society of Michelson Memorial church will meet with Mrs. Olaf Michelson at her cottage at Lake Margrethe Friday, August 5.

Mrs. Carl Larson was agreeably surprised Saturday evening when several of her friends dropped in to remind her that it was her birthday anniversary. Several games were the order of the evening, after which a delicious pot luck lunch was served to the group.

Grayling Lodge Loyal Order of Moose this week purchased the I. O. O. F. temple building and will use it for a lodge hall and social club.

About forty members of the Danish congregation gathered at the Tourist Park Sunday afternoon for the purpose of enjoying a few hours in the company of their former pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Hans Juhl, of Hampton, Iowa, who were on a short visit to Grayling. The afternoon was spent visiting, and a short program was enjoyed. Rev. Juhl and Rev. Stockholm, who were classmates together at the Theological Seminary, told of some of their experiences during that time. The afternoon was brought to a close with a picnic lunch and coffee.

Mrs. Wilbur Broadbent brot in a bottle full of bugs which she says are sometimes called Colorado potato bugs. They are from a half to an inch in length with a cylindrical, bluish gray body. She said they were attacking her bean crop and did not appear to be in evidence in any of her neighbor's gardens. Just as soon as a bean stalk is touched, she said, they would fall to the ground and start rolling over. Not being able to use poison on her bean stalks, she used salt and soapuds which seemed to drive them away. She said she had seen them before at Plymouth, Mich.

Recreation Notes

The first half of play in the Recreation Softball league ended a week ago with standings as follow:

	W	L
City Dairy	8	2
Moose	6	4
Firemen	6	4
Gulf Oils	5	5
Blackies	4	6
W. P. A.	1	9

At the beginning of the second half the Gulf Oil team had to withdraw because of several of their players being laid off. The Higgins Lake CCC have taken the Gulf Oils' place and the remaining oil men have joined the Moose team for the last half.

So far in the second half the Grayling Fire department team has shown real class and should be right at the top in this half. At the end of this half a round robin tournament will be played between the first three in each half to determine the season champion.

Swimming

The old swimming hole has been working overtime this year with a large number of men and boys taking part. Leo Lovely has been in charge all season giving swimming instructions as well as acting as life guard.

Playground And Ball

The play program started on the school playground and gym and has been very successful. Many of the small boys and girls have taken advantage of this supervised play and story hour and every morning finds them having a great time.

The older boys have their chance for activities in the afternoon when hard and soft ball are played and other organized games are enjoyed. Several hard ball games have been played with the Roscommon boys team. Each have been victorious in an equal number of games. Elmer Neal has been the guiding hand in these activities and seems to have done a very good job of it.

A new type of recreation service has been given to Grayling Grayling in the information and guide service which has been carried out by Benny Jorgenson in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce.

These programs are sponsored by the Recreation division of the Michigan W. P. A., with the cooperation of local organizations.

When S. C. Ratified Constitution

The federal Constitution was ratified at Charleston, S. C., by a convention of delegates meeting from May 12 to 24, 1788, by a vote of 149 to 73. This convention was called by the legislature.

AWARD FOR VALOR

Patrolman Carl A. Lagergren, whose lowering figure symbolizes the courage of New York City's police and fire departments extolled by Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia during the annual presentation of valor medals to members of both service branches, is shown as he forced the city executive to extend his 5 feet 2 inches so that he could pin the award on the bluecoat's tunic. Patrolman Lagergren, who stands 6 feet 7 1/2 inches, received his medal for rescuing a drowning woman from the Harlem river. At the same time, the mayor, speaking at the ceremony, gave a year's notice to "crooks and punks" to keep away from the coming World's fair. His police, he said, "are bad medicine for these people." The Mayor is back of you. When you are confronted with an armed crook, shoot and shoot to kill.

Chevrolet Dealers' Sons Hear Sloan

Alfred P. Sloan, Jr. (left center), Chairman of the Board of General Motors Corporation, visiting Detroit to address Chevrolet's School of Modern Merchandising and Management, commended the work being done by this unique business training school for the sons of automobile dealers. These young men came to Detroit from all parts of the country to study every phase of automobile merchandising and management. On Mr. Sloan's right is Wm. E. Holler, Chevrolet General Sales Manager, and founder of the school.

Doings of Our Gang Club

Mrs. Larry Balch entertained fifteen members of Our Gang last Thursday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. John Charlefour and Mrs. Earl Connin.

After a short business session the afternoon was spent in playing various games. Prizes were given to the following:

Mrs. Edna McEvers, Mrs. Herbert Stephan, Mrs. Charles Corwin, Mrs. Earl Connin, Mrs. Wm. Williams and Mrs. Percy Budd.

Ice cream and cake was served by the committee in charge, with a lovely birthday cake for July birthdays made by Mrs. Wm. Williams.

Next meeting will be Aug. 4 at the home of Mrs. Herbert Stephan.

THE FALL GARDEN

Lettuce, Kohl Rabi and escarole planted now furnish a fall and winter supply of vitamins.

Escarole is a variety of endive—quite an improvement. Plants can be stored away in the cellar. It makes a fine salad with French dressing.

Kohl Rabi should not be allowed to grow more than 2 inches in diameter, but the part next the ground is always tender. Boil until nearly tender, then slice thinly and fry in butter, or cook and serve with sauce like early turnips. The former method is best. Store in cellar for winter. Have ground rich. Sow seed often.

Winter radishes may be planted now and furnish vitamin B in the cold weather. Store in the cellar. Japs and Chinese make a great deal of these radishes.

Irish Name Prefix "Fitz"

The Irish name prefix "Fitz" has an involved history. Its Latin form is "filius," meaning "son," but originally meaning "suckling." In Gothic it appears as "thilius," meaning "suckling," and the same word appears in English, after a series of linguistic shifts, as "dalry"—or "place of sucklings." The Irish and Latin "f" changes to "th" and "d" in the various dialects.

Cause for Applause

"Truth does not always command applause," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown. "It is often only a trick of word or voice that causes men to shout and beat their hands together."

RADICALS IN CHURCHES

"Socialism and Communism have penetrated the American Church," writes H. L. Varney. "Their spokesmen are sitting in strategic positions in our leading denominations. Covertly but surely they are laboring to transform some of our outstanding church institutions into instruments for social revolution. Moreover, in this effort they have already won the co-operation of an appallingly large number of well meaning, but politically immature pastors."

This "radicalism" has developed among these well meaning pastors under the guise of "Social Reform." The Social Gospelers are striving for humanitarianism in the church's social reform. But Stalin has discovered that Communism can be achieved painlessly by United Fronts with these practical minded American Church Socialists.

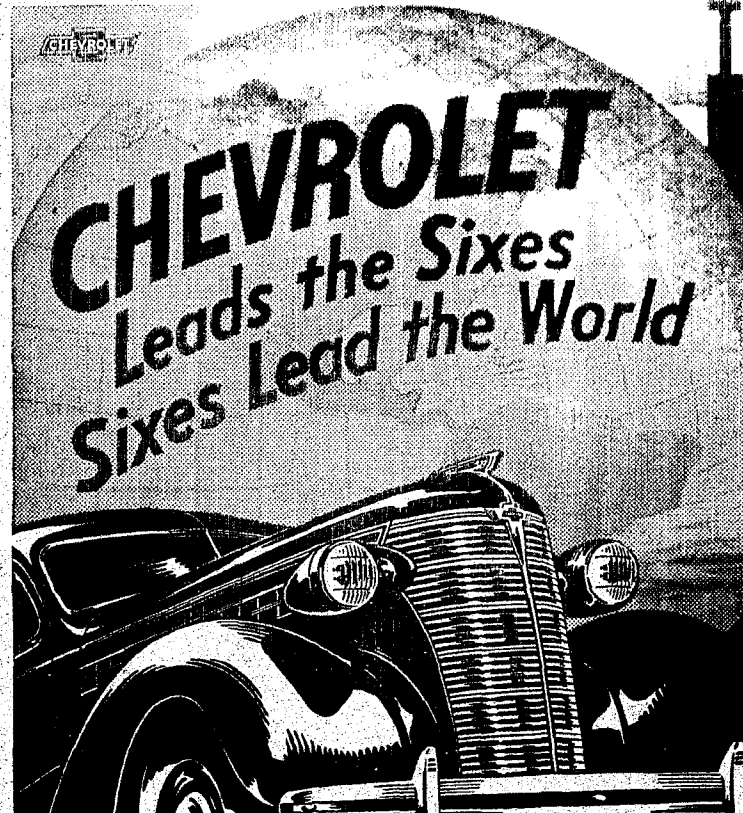

Aye, there's the rub. Many of our preachers are unconsciously working hand in hand with Moscow for social reform. And what will they get? A new Democracy? No! A thousand times, No! We'll get church persecution. . . . The idolatry of the State. The State and the Government will be our God. Is that liberalism? Is it freedom of worship?

This week we discovered that a preacher we frequently listen to is among these left-wingers, who, under the guise of Social Reform, is working hand in glove with the Communists. Will we have better churches when these preachers succeed in their efforts? Indeed not. There won't be any churches, because their success will be the success of the Communists.

So when you hear a preacher accuse Catholicism of intolerance and radicalism, of the Catholics accusing Protestants of the same anti-democratic ideas, do not let them influence you to hate or despise your fellow Christian. When you do respond to their misguided advice, you are aiding the cause of Communism in America. God's commandment is, "Love thy neighbor." Communism flourishes on hate—not love. —Michigan Men and Affairs.

Electricity for Early Telegraphy

The source of the electricity used to operate the early telegraph system for many years was the "blue-stone" or "gravity" battery, the elements of which are zinc and copper in a solution of sulphate of copper in a glass jar.

Making It Tough For Hotel Defrauders

Michigan's hotel operators have taken steps to make this state tough for hotel deadbeats, skippers and passers of bad checks.

In their effort to be as accommodating as possible to visitors to Michigan, hotel operators have been liberal in their dealings with their guests which in some instances has resulted in the passing of "rubber checks" skipped hotel bills, and deliberately evaded charge accounts.

The hotels have been gradually tightening up on these practices, and the recent formation of the Michigan Hotels Protective Association to which all types of defrauders are reported promptly, will accomplish the desired results of eliminating these abuses, the hotel men believe. In operation but a few weeks, the association has already saved the hotel industry of the state a considerable amount of money through various means of dealing with intentional defrauders.

Backed by a Board of Directors, including a group of the most prominent hotel operators throughout the state, the Michigan Hotels Protective Association works closely with city and state police departments, probation departments, prosecuting attorneys, credit associations, banking organizations and other state hotel protective associations throughout the country.

Full cooperation of the many hotels and resorts in Michigan has been obtained, and the first of a series of meetings bringing together the credit managers and auditors of the state hotels for mutual discussion of the hotel fraud problem was held recently in Detroit. At these meetings the men who handle credit matters in the hotels are being educated and encouraged to carry on the campaign against defrauders to the utmost efficiency.
